How to indent your references

Your references should be listed in alphabetical order with one line of space between each entry. Every line after the first line should be indented so that the author stands out.

Right click at the start of the second line of your reference.

Select Paragraph from the list.

Click on the drop down arrow under special – indentation. Select OK.

Reference List

